STUDENT NEWS

1. The Senior Class gets to have its picture taken ALL AT ONCE in a HUGE 10 this Friday, September 25, so seniors should expect to be released from 6th period at 1:45.
2. All seniors should have received "Senior Superlative" ballot from their social studies teachers. They are due back to their teachers, to Rune staff members, or to Mr. Unckles in room 302. The DEADLINE is Friday, October 2
3. One of the great operas, Verdi's La Traviata, a story set in the "beau monde" of early Nineteenth Century Paris is going to be presented by Seattle Opera in October. Opera Club has 28 spots reserved for the dress rehearsal on Wednesday night, October 14 (the Gold cast). A speaker from the opera, and a Lake Stevens grad, Seneca Garber, will be here on Oct. 6, 5th period in the choir room to give a presentation. If you know a lot about opera this is your chance to see a great one for cheap, and if you don't know anything about opera, this is a good opportunity to try it out. The cost to attend the opera will be twenty dollars, (ten for the tickets and ten for the bus) The cost to attend the presentation on the sixth is nothing, but if you are not in choir, you will need to get permission slips from Mr. Kelly or Ms Tilley to attend.
4. A message from your school nurse: If you are still carrying around "pink" health forms, please turn them in NOW to the school nurse.
5. Need work credit – please see Ms. Smethers in the Main Office before school or after 2nd period.
