STUDENT NEWS

1. Today the Senior Class gets to have its picture taken ALL AT ONCE in a HUGE 10, so seniors should expect to be released from 6th period at 1:45.
2. All seniors should have received "Senior Superlative" ballot from their social studies teachers. They are due back to their teachers, to Rune staff members, or to Mr. Unckles in room 302. The DEADLINE is Friday, October 2
3. The PSAT will be offered at LSHS on October 14th at 8:35 am. To sign up, pay $13 to the business office. After payment is made, take your receipt to Mr. Willie in the counseling office to receive your study guide. Further questions, see Mr. Willie
4. LSHS is offering a SAT Prep Class. The class will begin on September 29th at 5:00pm in room 304. It will be once per week for six weeks. It will conclude prior to the November 7th SAT. The first 30 students to pay $50 to the business office will be admitted. See Mr. Willie for questions.
5. If you are interested in a campus parking spot, please come to the office and complete a form as there still some parking spots remaining.
6. Students are reminded that you are not allowed to go to your cars during the school day. This is a closed campus.
7. One of the great operas, Verdi's La Traviata, a story set in the "beau monde" of early Nineteenth Century Paris is going to be presented by Seattle Opera in October. Opera Club has 28 spots reserved for the dress rehearsal on Wednesday night, October 14 (the Gold cast). A speaker from the opera, and a Lake Stevens grad, Seneca Garber, will be here on Oct. 6, 5th period in the choir room to give a presentation. If you know a lot about opera this is your chance to see a great one for cheap, and if you don't know anything about opera, this is a good opportunity to try it out. The cost to attend the opera will be twenty dollars, (ten for the tickets and ten for the bus) The cost to attend the presentation on the sixth is nothing, but if you are not in choir, you will need to get permission slips from Mr. Kelly or Ms Tilley to attend.
